The Admission Committee constituted for the academic session worked in coordination with the admission section and followed the guidelines provided by the Government of Maharashtra and the RTM Nagpur University, Nagpur.

The abstract report of the Admission Committee as follows:

Admissions Process

The committee has followed the reservation policy of central, state government and the affiliating university for S.C./S.T. and other weaker sections. The committee is therefore empowered to see that all the students be given admission on the basis of the academic record. Entire admission procedure was followed as per the university guidelines. Admissions were finalized by considering intake capacity in the concerned group and class. Initially, registrations were called and the applications received were scrutinized for the preparation of final list of eligible students on merit basis. The list of eligible students was displayed on the notice board and the date for admission were fixed for finalization of the admissions. All relevant documents of the students were scrutinized and finally admitted to the course available in the institution.
